General Comment

I do not need the government deciding on my retirement. We are grown people and have already begun saving for that time, however, you could work with the part of the government that has a debt of 18 trillion (PLUS). Do you think I trust to government to provide for me when they can't even balance a budget? I have to do without so I can pay my bills, so should the govt. I want independence not dependency. Have you forgotten how our country began the great experiment? Have you forgotten WHO enabled us to be here?

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights,"

Let me chart my own way in life, stop taxing me to death and no...the little money I have after taxes are mine, not yours.

Sincerely,

Sheri Glaros
